UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

for the

Eastern District of Missouri

CHRISTOPHER DAVID SCHROEDER  Defendant  DETENTION ORDER PENDING TRIAL  After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.  Part I—Findings of Fact  (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of a federal offense a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  1 The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  3 A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the safety of another person or the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.		United States of America )
CHRISTOPHER DAVID SCHROEDER   Defendant   DETENTION ORDER PENDING TRIAL    After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.    Part I—Findings of Fact
DETENTION ORDER PENDING TRIAL  After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.  Part I—Findings of Fact  Part I—Findings of Fact  (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of a federal offense a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is  a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has clapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).	CHRIST
After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.  Part I—Findings of Fact  (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of  a federal offense  a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is  a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).
After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.  Part I—Findings of Fact  (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of  a federal offense  a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is  a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).
Part I—Findings of Fact    (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of   a federal offense   a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is   a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.   an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.   an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in   a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:   any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:   a minor victim   the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon   a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250   The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.   date of conviction   the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).   Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		DETENTION ORDER PENDING TRIAL
<ul> <li>□ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of □ a federal offense □ a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is □ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.</li> <li>□ an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.</li> <li>□ an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in</li></ul>			nese facts of  a federal offense  a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed - that is   a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).		Part I—Findings of Fact jurisdiction had existed - that is  a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4)or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  3. A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  4. Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the	$\square$ (1) The	e defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been c	onvicted
□ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4)or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  □ an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment. □ an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  * □ a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses: □ any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves: □ a minor victim □ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon □ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the	of	$\square$ a federal offense $\square$ a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal for which the prison term is 10 years or more.  an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.  an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the	jı	jurisdiction had existed - that is an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in  #  a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the	[	v vvv	b(g)(5)
a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:  a minor victim  the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon  a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.  A period of less than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		□ an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.
a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  □ any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves: □ a minor victim □ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon □ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		$\square$ an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses:  □ any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves: □ a minor victim □ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon □ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		.*
□ a minor victim □ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon □ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the
□ a minor victim □ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon □ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		□ any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:
□ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250 □ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense. □ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1). □ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		□ a minor victim
<ul> <li>□ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.</li> <li>□ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).</li> <li>□ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the</li> </ul>		☐ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon
<ul> <li>□ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state release or local offense.</li> <li>□ (3) A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).</li> <li>□ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the</li> </ul>		□ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250
from prison for the offense described in finding (1).  [1] (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the		The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial	for a $\Box$ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the	□ (3) A	A period of less than five years has elapsed since the □ date of conviction □ the defendant's r	release fr	from prison for the offense described in finding (1).
	` /

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

for the

Eastern District of Missouri

	Alternative Findings (A)
1 (1)	There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
	$\Box$ for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in $\Box$ .
	□ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
	involving a minor victim under 18 U.S.C. § 2251 & 2423 .
1 (2)	The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition will reasonably assurthe defendant's appearance and the safety of the community.
_	Alternative Findings (B)
1 (1)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
2 (2)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
The couparties.	art adopts the facts set out in the Pretrial Services Report filed on 12/7/15, which are not disputed by the Part II— Statement of the Reasons for Detention  I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by clear and ing evidence $\Box$ a preponderance of the evidence that travelection sexual destroy enforce record	lant, a system's engineer with expertise in computers, met a 15 year old girl from Ohio over the internet d to Ohio to pick her up, and returned with her to his home in Missouri where he proceeded to have intercourse with the minor, which was videotaped; the record before this court suggests Defendant yed the victim's cell phone SIM card and engaged in other conduct to avoid detection by law ement. Defendant has resources and, given the severe penalties involved, incentive to flee. Taking the as a whole, there are no conditions that will reasonably assure Defendant's appearance as required, the safety, and/or the community's safety.
	Part III—Directions Regarding Detention
in a corr pending order of	The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement rections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility liver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
Date:	12/07/2015 Suly Pal 12/07/2015
-	Judge's Signature
	UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Name and Title

*Insert as applicable: (a) Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.); (b) Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. § 951 et seq.); or (c) Section 1 of Act of Sept. 15, 1980 (21 U.S.C. § 955a).

Page 2 of 3